

Monthly 'Featured Feature' VisaHQ

My first international business trip is coming up soon. I need a Passport and a Visa, but I did not know what to do. I tried to go onto the Internet to find solutions, but was faced with only more confusion.

Chris

Chris' trip... the facts

Chris has an upcoming business trip that he must acquire a passport and Visa for. He has never needed either of these before for a work trip, so he is unsure what measures he must take to obtain these documents. To make matters worse, he has waited until the last minute to gather the required documents and is scared that he may not be able to find where to send the documents in time for his trip!

Chris' trip... the problem

Chris is finding conflicting information. Some information is out of date, along with a long line of possible rejections since he does not have the correct information. This is taking so much time!

How will he be able to research which documents are needed, and the closest facilities to acquire these documents in time for his trip?

WorldMobile solutions

The logo for WorldMobile, featuring a stylized Wi-Fi symbol composed of three concentric, curved lines in a light blue color, centered behind the main title.

In only two clicks on Chris' WorldMobile app, all of the up-to-date information on passports and Visas is in one place.

Information also includes step-by-step instructions on what is needed and where it must be sent.

A chat feature allows for Chris to quickly have questions answered that may not be directly specified.

A progress bar will help show the efficiency of his request being completed.
